

SAMITH SANDADI, M.D., MSc, FACOG, FACS

FLORIDA GYNECOLOGIC ONCOLOGY

COMMITMENT TO WOMEN'S CANCER

Dr. Samith Sandadi shares the belief that all women with suspected or diagnosed gynecologic cancer should have access to the best treatment available. He also believes that the best outcomes are achieved through an educated partnership between the treating physician and the patient. It is essential to provide women with potential or diagnosed cancer a clear knowledge of their disease and all aspects of available treatment options. Dr. Sandadi strives to provide state-of-the-art care—from diagnosis to post-treatment surveillance—in a warm and compassionate environment.
